PLEASE CALL BY NUMBER

ANNANDALE TELEPHONE
EXCHANGE COMPANY

JULY 1, 1924

INSTRUCTIONS.

Report any trouble to Central Office promptly.

Operators are not permitted to carry on conversations.

When talking over a telephone, talk directly into the transmitter, with the lips about one and one-half inch from the mouth-piece.

Do not use phone during electrical storms. While not absolutely dangerous, sneak currents may give you a severe shock. Operators are warned not to remain at the board during electrical storms.

Operators are expected to be patient and polite under all circumstances. Kindly accord to them a like consideration.

Loafing and loitering in the telephone office is strictly contrary to the rules of the Telephone Company. Central office is for business only.

Subscribers in calling for a party will ring central and say for instance, Five-Five Line One-O-Four (55 L 104). The operator will at once know she is to ring two long rings on line No. 104; or One-Five-Two Line Six One (152 L 61) she will know she is to ring one short, one long, and two short rings on line No. 61. The figure "5" always represents one long ring in the code. "55" two long rings, "555" three long rings, and "5555" four long rings. All other figures represent short rings.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

1. Conversations are limited strictly not to exceed three minutes for each message.

2. By "Subscriber" is meant, the immediate members of the family of the party in whose house the phone is installed.

3. Non-subscribers will be charged ten (10) cents per message for use of rural lines and all local and long distance tolls will be charged to party over whose phone messages are sent.

4. This company does not undertake to receive, transmit, or deliver any messages, written or verbal, and will not under any circumstances be responsible for such messages if received or transmitted by its employes.

5. General Alarm:—On rural lines in cases of emergency such as fire, sickness, or accident, ring six long rings. All parties on the line, hearing this ring should take receiver off the hook and await the announcement. Party wishing to make such call is to have the right of way in all cases of emergency.

6. Instruments and circuits are subject to the rules of the Telephone Company made from time to time, for the management thereof, and to be used only by the subscriber or by his agent or employes engaged in his business and not for receiving or transmitting any message or communication in respect of which a consideration has been, or is to be paid to any party other than the Telephone Company, except as may be permitted by said rules, nor in any messenger business; and are not to be removed from said premises, nor connected with any instruments, or apparatus not furnished by the Telephone Company.

7. At all reasonable times the Company through its authorized employees, shall have the right of access to the premises of the subscriber to install, inspect or repair, the lines or equipment, or to remove them upon termination of the subscriber's right of use.

8. Subscribers desiring telephone moved from one location to another, will be charged one-half of cost occasioned by such removal.

9. Profane, indecent, obscene or abusive language, quarrelling or fighting over the wires and instruments is absolutely contrary to the Rules and Regulations of the Telephone Company and are strictly prohibited.

10. In case of any default in payment of bills or breach thereof, the Telephone Company may disconnect or remove the instruments, but such action shall not affect the subscriber's liability for payment.

11. Warning:—Sec. 8931, G. S. Minn.: Every person who shall wilfully or maliciously displace, remove, injure or destroy—any line of telegraph or telephone, or any part thereof, or any appurtenance or apparatus connected with the working of any magnetic or electric telegraph or telephone, or the sending or conveyance of messages thereby—shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not to exceed one hundred dollars or imprisonment for not to exceed ninety days.
