

Annandale Friends of the Library
AUTHOR DINNER

featuring

KJ ERICKSON

KJ Erickson writes the Mars Bahr mystery series, set in Minneapolis. Her first book in the series, Third Person Singular, was nominated for Anthony and Barry Awards as the best first mystery published in 2001. The Dead Survivors received a Friends of American Writer's prize for adult fiction published in 2002. The Last Witness and Alone at Night were nominated for Minnesota book awards in 2003 and 2004, respectively. Alone at Night received the Minnesota book award for popular fiction published in 2004 and was a finalist for the Barry Award for best novel, awarded by Deadly Pleasures magazine.

Prior to retiring to write full-time, KJ Erickson was vice president for risk management at the Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis.

Author Dinner May 11, 2007

Reichel's Event Center • 725 Norway Drive (behind Subway off Hwy 55)

Doors open 5:30 p.m. • Dinner served at 6:00 p.m. • Program 7:00 p.m.

Books available for sale at the library and at the dinner. • Author signing after dinner

Tickets available at Annandale Public Library • In Hot Water

Ticket Price: $17 Annandale Friends Members • $20 General Public

Menu: Chicken breast w/raspberry sauce, rice pilaf, salad, rolls, coffee & lemonade, assorted bars.

For more information call Great River Regional Library, Annandale Branch at 320-274-8448